Re: Louis Monat Sweet and Rheagene Campbell Sweet

Dear Mrs. Storey:

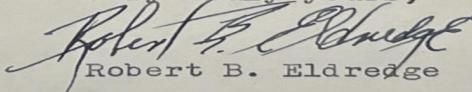

Your late husband performed a proxy marriage for the above parties on March 12, 1945 while he was Minister at the Mount Vernon Place Methodist Church in Washington, D. C.

I have been in contact with the Secretary of that Church and she informs me that the Rev. Storey kept his own records in his personal file and therefore I would have to write to you for assistance in this matter.

We are endeavoring to prove the legitimacy of the Sweet children and related matters, therefore, it is imperative that I obtain the Power of Attorney and the Contract of Marriage executed by the above parties, which two documents the Rev. Storey kept in his personal files. Would you kindly make a search of your husband's records and forward to me the originals of the Power of Attorney and Contract of Marriage.

This office will be happy to reimburse you for any expenses incurred and for services rendered.

Very truly yours,

Robert B. Eldredge

Mr. Robert B. Eldredge, Montpelier, Vermont.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of the 10th inst.
regarding the Louis Monat Sweet marriage, I would say that I have been looking thru my late husband's file and am enclosing the only paper I can find about this matter. I presume this Marriage License will serve the purpose.

The couple should have a Marriage Certificate in their possession because I know my husband always issued them to the parties involved.

Could you please return this paper to me so that I can replace it in the file?

Thanking you,

Sincerely,
